THE PROGRAM

Peggy Baker shares the inspiration, methods, and motives that underlie the conception and creation of locus plot, a full evening work set to premiere in April 24 – May 3.

locus plot takes the pristine mathematical underpinnings of locus (schematic renderings of mathematical formulae) and disrupts this abstraction with explosions, collapses, and slides into dramatic dance-theatre episodes that translate the dynamics of physics, geometry, and algebra as charged interactions on a human level.

Elegant equations

Composer and musician: John Kameel Farah

Choreographer: Peggy Baker

Vocalographer: Fides Krucker

Costumes: Robyn Macdonald

Dancers: Ric Brown, Sarah Fregeau, Kate Holden, Sean Ling, Sahara Morimoto

From April 24 – May 3, 2015 at the Betty Oliphant Theatre (404 Jarvis Street) Peggy Baker Dance Projects presents locus plot, a dynamic new, full-evening work inspired by pristine mathematical equations – intensified by voice, live music and charged physical interactions.
